Social Enterprise Projects (update)

Here is the GoFundMe page for A (they're calling him "Amir") that his friend set up, see pic above. A is especially vulnerable since he's alone.

I started teaching math at LAUSD a few weeks ago. The director of GP suggested I set up a furlough during this transitional period before making a clear decision about missions.

Prayers for my friends facing cancer or loss in the family this Easter

Here's the first big project proposal for social enterprise [w/ personal info edited out]. Let me know if you can help. And join the Full Circle private FB group to get more involved. (Below is a picture of young adults who had grown up in Chonburi Center as orphans visiting my parents to say hello.)
